

G10 ASSEMBLY

TOGETHER WE RISE!!

Today's agenda

- Academic Achievement/ Honors and AP Courses
- Attendance policy
- Study Hall, Access, PLT expectations
- School calendar for Semester 2
- Merit Scholarship Applications for 2022-2023

Academic Expectations

- At ASFM, Meeting standards is our minimum expectation
- AP and Honors acceptance is dependent on good grades
- PLT and Access are times for personalized learning - take advantage of these opportunities
- Study Hall is for studying (especially if you are not meeting standards in your classes)
- Want to succeed? Effort matters!

Absences:

- Excused absences: For unexcused absences (sickness, emergency) parents are expected to inform school on the day of the absence.
- Pre-arranged absences: For all plan absences parents are expected to inform school the nature of the absence, 5 school days in advance in order to determine the nature of the absence. Students have the responsibility to inform teachers and plan on working on assignments prior to their departure.

Attendance and punctuality

- SEP mandates students must meet 80% attendance expectations.
 - Students that do not meet the attendance expectations will be placed on attendance probation.
- Students are expected to plan to be in classrooms prior to 8:10 a.m. when the classes start.
